QUOTE CORNER

One's friends are that part of the human race with which one can be human. —George Santayana

A friend knows the song in my heart and sings it to me when my memory fails. —Donna Roberts

If a man does not make new acquaintances as he advances through life, he will soon find himself alone. A man should keep his friendships in constant repair. —Samuel Johnson

True friendship comes when silence between two people is comfortable. —Dave Tyson Gentry

You can always tell a real friend: when you've made a fool of yourself he doesn't feel you've done a permanent job. —Laurence J. Peter Friends are those rare people who ask how you are and then wait for the answer.
