LIVE THE GOSPEL WHATEVER IT TAKES

ALL ARE WELCOME!

As a Jesuit parish, we believe we are called to explore, discover, respect, protect, and enhance whatever is humane and graced in every person, and in every culture.

We believe that diversity shared with love and respect enriches all of us and makes us more compassionate and creative. We seek to walk with others and to invite them to walk with us.

We encourage people to reflect on their experiences and to discern God's presence in their lives. Our desire is to nurture lay leadership as well as personal faith, a "faith that does justice," by way of solidarity with the poor and dedication to the greater good.

We believe that working hard to cooperate with and share God's generosity and compassion is one of the privileges of being human—and that what we owe to God, to creation, to one another is gratitude, humility, reverence, and service.

We publish a weekly electronic magazine called Parish: 'the thought'. This comes out every Tuesday and will give you all the information you need for what is happening in and around the St. Ignatius Catholic Community. If you are not yet subscribed but would like to be, go to <http://www.st-ignatius.net/ezone/>

The Ascension of the Lord

THE MAIN THING

MEET OUR "DEACON IN TRAINING"

My name is Andrew Lacovara and I am entering my final year of formation to become a deacon for the Archdiocese of Baltimore. My wife, Avendui, and I are members of Corpus Christi in Bolton Hill. Our two sons are in college and often attended the 6:00 PM Mass here at St. Ignatius (Last gasp!)

I have worked for a structural engineering firm for the last two decades or so, where I spent much of my time doing commercial diving work for the underwater inspections of bridges, dams, and marine structures.

I am pleased that the formation team granted my request to be placed at St. Ignatius for my year-long parish assignment. Deacon Weber and Fr. Casciotti are mentoring me. They and so many of you have already welcomed me into the community.

Prior to this year, I spent my institutional assignment working with the chaplain staff at Mercy Medical Center. Before that, I spent several years working in prison ministry, with men and woman in federal pre-trial detention.

The formation process for the diaconate in Archdiocese is a lengthy one, typically taking four years, focusing on personal, intellectual, spiritual, and pastoral development.

Those called to the diaconate, like all the faithful, are called to a ministry of service. As is articulated in the ordination rite for deacons, such a ministry is fundamentally based on the imitation of Jesus, "who came not to be served, but to serve." I look forward to worshipping with you, sharing in the ministries of the parish, and learning from you how to be a deacon!

-Andrew

The altar flowers today have been donated by Len and Helen Heckwolf in memory of Len's sister, parishioner Mary Ann Heckwolf, who died on May 7, 2017.
